The Role of Women

Analytical/Expository Essay

Name _____

Janice Avery is a bully and troublemaker. One day Janice fell in the aisle of the bus and in order to "save face" she said that Jess tripped her. The bus driver proceeded to make Jess get off the bus and make the long walk home. It made Jess a little mad but it absolutely infuriated Leslie.

> "It's the principle of the thing, Jess. That's what you've got to understand. You have to stop people like that. Otherwise they turn into tyrants and dictators."

Leslie wanted revenge. She devised a plan wherein they could humiliate Janice and not get into any trouble. Their plan led to a terrifying discovery about Janice Avery's home life.

Perhaps there was another way to handle the problem. What would you do? Write an essay that clearly explains the problem, offers a reasonable solution, provides evidence for why the solution will work, and a solid conclusion.
