

Character Sociogram

Name: _____

A sociogram is a graphic representation of the social connections a person has. Think about Dicey's connection to the other characters in the story. Think about how they perceive each other. Use the sociogram below to represent the relationship between several of the characters and Dicey. Arrows from Dicey's name to the characters should contain Dicey's perceptions of that character. Arrows from the character to Dicey should indicate that character's perception of Dicey.
