

Use this customized approval request form to print and share with your district or state teaching licensure authority when seeking approval for a Professional Development Institute course.

About PDI

The Professional Development Institute (PDI) has been offering quality online courses to K-12 educators for decades and providing training to teachers across the globe. Every PDI course is approved for graduate-level credit through the prestigious University of California San Diego Division of Extended Studies, ranked in the top ten universities in the United States.

UC San Diego is part of the University of California system and is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC).

Every PDI course is instructor-led and includes practical strategies for immediate implementation into the classroom, opportunities to interact with the instructor and other participants, rich content, and valuable assignments. Every PDI course is approved as 3 1/3 semester units (or 5 quarter units) of graduate-level credit, equivalent to 50 training hours. Teachers must spend a minimum of three weeks in each course (consecutively, when taking multiple courses) before a final grade is released.

Signature

course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different typor of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teached will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary grades.	Last Name:	First Name:	ID #:
Course Number and Title:  65702/ EDUC41501 Anti-Bullying Strategies for Primary Grades  I am taking this course:  for 3 1/3 semester unit of graduate level credit. Upon completion, I will receive a transcript from UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies.  As an in-service course. I may request a PDI Grade Report to document my completion.  This course is approved as 50 training hours, whether taken for graduate credit or in-service.  Course Description:  Are you looking for ways to curb bullying behavior that you see in the classroom, in the school, and on the playground? The course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teacher will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary gradeachers will feel more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.  Seeking approval for:  recertification/relicensure personal and/or professional growth	School Name:	Address:
I am taking this course:  for 3 1/3 semester unit of graduate level credit. Upon completion, I will receive a transcript from UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies.  As an in-service course. I may request a PDI Grade Report to document my completion.  This course is approved as 50 training hours, whether taken for graduate credit or in-service.  Course Description:  Are you looking for ways to curb bullying behavior that you see in the classroom, in the school, and on the playground? The course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different typ of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teache will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary graduachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary graduachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary graduachers will also learn how to residents. Importantly, teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary graduachers will gele more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.  Seeking approval for:	Email Address:	Grade Level:	Daytime Phone:
I am taking this course:  for 3 1/3 semester unit of graduate level credit. Upon completion, I will receive a transcript from UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies.  As an in-service course. I may request a PDI Grade Report to document my completion.  *This course is approved as 50 training hours, whether taken for graduate credit or in-service.  Course Description:  Are you looking for ways to curb bullying behavior that you see in the classroom, in the school, and on the playground? The course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different typ of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teache will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary graditeachers will feel more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.  Seeking approval for:  recertification/relicensure personal and/or professional growth for 3 1/3 semester unit of graduate level credit. Upon completion, I will receive a transcript from UC San Diego Division of Extended Studies.  As an in-service course. I may request a PDI Grade Report to document my completion.  *This course is approved as 50 training hours, whether taken for graduate credit or in-service.  Course Description:  Are you looking for ways to curb bullying behavior that you see in the classroom, in the school, and on the playground? The course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different typ of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teacher will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary gradeteachers will feel more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.  Seeking approval for:  recertification/relicensure personal and/or professional growth
*This course is approved as 50 training hours, whether taken for graduate credit or in-service.  Course Description:  Are you looking for ways to curb bullying behavior that you see in the classroom, in the school, and on the playground? The course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different type of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teache will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary graditeachers will feel more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.  Seeking approval for:	for 3 1/3 semester unit of graduate level credit. Upon completion, I will receive a Course Description:  Are you looking for ways to curb bullying behavior that you see in the classroom, in the school, and on the playground? The course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different type of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teached will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary graditeachers will feel more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.  Seeking approval for:	As an in-service course. I may request a PDI Grade Report to document my completion.
Are you looking for ways to curb bullying behavior that you see in the classroom, in the school, and on the playground? The course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different typ of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teacher will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary grade teachers will feel more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.  Seeking approval for:  recertification/relicensure personal and/or professional growth	*This course is approved as 50 training hours, whether taken for graduate credit or in-service.
course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different typ of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teache will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary graditeachers will feel more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.  Seeking approval for:  recertification/relicensure  personal and/or professional growth	Course Description:
recertification/relicensure personal and/or professional growth	Are you looking for ways to curb bullying behavior that you see in the classroom, in the school, and on the playground? This course will help teachers understand the myths, facts, research, and current events that surround bullying as well as the major impact bullying has on learning both in the short term and long term. Teachers will be introduced to the different types of bullying and the various roles involved including bully, victim, and bystander. Teachers will also learn the predictors and contributing factors to bullying in the primary grades. Effective strategies will be covered to help teachers assess, prevent, and reduce bullying in the classroom and school. Such strategies include creating positive relationships with students and integrating cooperative learning and character education into the curriculum. Teachers will understand how to properly intervene during incidents of bullying and learn how to create a safe learning environment for students. Importantly, teachers will also learn about their communicating and reporting responsibilities in regard to bullying events that were witnessed. Teachers will also learn how to make parents their partners in bullying prevention. By the end of this course, primary grade teachers will feel more empowered to handle bullying incidents in the classroom and school.
personal and/or professional growth district or state requirement
albatiot of otatio requirement				